Real Soccer Club Joins ChievoVerona North American Academy

December 10, 2014 – A.C. ChievoVerona have formed a partnership with the Idaho based soccer organization Real Soccer Club.

Real Soccer Club is a youth soccer organization in the southwest region of Idaho. Located just outside of the Boise area in Middleton. Since 2002, Real Soccer Club has been committed to developing players and coaches in Idaho's district 3 and have produced state and regional champion teams. The club strives to expose committed players to a professional training environment. Real Soccer Club provides individuals with the opportunity of growth in the technical, tactical, physical and psychological components of soccer and also to give their teams a sense of collective achievement, all while enjoying the game fully. All Real Soccer academy's U5-U9 teams are guided by a professional director of coaching and all U10-U18 competitive teams have licensed head coaches, being one of the club's top priorities coaches' development through clinics and sanctioned courses.

The partnership will see the ChievoVerona North American Academy hosting a series of Elite Player ID events with RSC. ChievoVerona will send Academy staff members over to work with RSC players at these events. The best male and female players at these events will be invited to attend the ChievoVerona National Camp. The National Camp will host the top players from each of our partner clubs in North America. From the National Camp, the top players will be invited to attend the Elite Player Tour at our Academy in Verona, Italy.

Juanjo Carmona – Director of Coaching: “This partnership with GIS and AC ChievoVerona is a giant leap in the club's aspirations to be exposed to the highest coaching methods, and bring ChievoVerona Academy coaches to work with Real Soccer Club. This partnership will allow our players and coaches the accessibility to travel to Italy and learn from one of the best Italian Serie A pro youth academy.”

Global Image Sports and ChievoVerona are very impressed with Real Soccer Club, and are excited about a long and successful partnership.
